NuGrainB3-0234

Medium-early hybrid with semi compact head, good aphid tolerance and yield potential.

This medium-early maturity hybrid has high tolerance to drought and will produce outstanding yields under dryland or limited irrigated conditions. The semi-closed panicle has good exertion and is easy threshing. Leaf quality is very good and shows stay green and excellent resistance to drought. Standability is very good because of its stiff stalk and strong deep root system.
